ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE.

Kentucky Convicts Dig a Tunnel Fifty Feet in Length.

A Hole Had Been Cut Through a Work. Shop Bench and Led Under the Floor to the Mouth of the Tunnel.—The Plot is Discovered Just in Time.

FRANKPORT, Ky., Dec. 31 .- Warden Norman has discovered and foiled a plan for a big outbreak of prisoners. The outbreak was the most cunningly planned of any ever attempted in the prison, and, but for the timely discovery, would have led to a big delivery of

The plan was even more complicated and shrewdly concocted than was the famous escape of the Morgan command of soldiers at Columbus, O., during the war. A hole had been cut through a work-shop bench and led under the floor to the mouth of a tunnel that had been dug fifty feet in length, and to within ten feet of a big sewer just outside of the prison wall.

The men who climbed through a window into the shop and did their work Sundays, were evidently working toward the big sewer. This once reached, fifty men could have walked single file down to the river bank, a half mile below town. It is not thought that more than a half dozen men were engaged on the work at first, and some one must have seen the warden enter the shop Sunday, for the minute the warden began his secret Sunday watch the work stopped. The warden kept his secret and told no one that he was watching until Thursday, when, abandoning hope of catching the wilv tunnelers, he had the tunnel filled up, and fresh safe-guards added to that portion of the shop.

TO TAME A ZEBRA.

Prof. Gleason, the Horse Tamer, and a Victors Cincinnati Asimal.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.-An interesting experiment in. animal training will be tried at the Madison Square garden on Monday evening, January 9. Oscar R. Gleason, who has been known for many years as a successful horse tamer, will then try to tame a vicious zebra. He has lived for four years in the Zoological garden in Cincinnati. He has killed four keepers and three zebra mares and a short time ago he nearly killed a man who tried to subdue him. Mr. Gleason, who has never tried to tame a zebra, wants to find out for himself and to show others just how much he can do at taming anmals, so he has bought Dick for $1,000 and he means to try to bring him under subjection.

The Umbria Arrives Safely.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—"Umbria" was the name the signal lights of a big two-funneled, three-masted steamship flashed to the tower on Fire Island, at midnight, it was, indeed, the long overdue Cunarder vessel. The operator over in the tower lost no time in sending the good news. He took another look through the glass at the steamship. There was no mistaking the big black hull and clear outlines of the Cunard racer. There she was defined in the clear moonlight.

Southern Industries. CHATTANOGGA, Tenn., Dec. 31.—The Tradesman has compiled reports of new industries established during the year 1892 in the states of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia. Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia. The total is 3,440, being 323 less than for 1891, 508 less than for 1890 and 141 less than for 1889.

AT Zanesville after the family had retired the other night Anna Kenner went to her own room, locked the door and drank an ounce of a solution of Paris green. Some time during the night her sister had occasion to go to her room and was unable to get an answer to her knock. She awakened her brother and he forced the door and found Annie lying on the bed unconscious and almost inanimate. A physician was hastily summoned and restoratives tried, but although the spark of life has been preserved for some time by continuous use of electric batteries it is growing fainter and she can not live. She was a very attractive girl, with many friends, and her lover was Chas. H. Radsbottom, a pottery manufacturer of some means. He had deserted her, causing the deed.
